Concept

Shared Festival celebrates the spirit of togetherness – communities unite in planning, celebrating, and immersing in cultural festivities, creating a vibrant tapestry of shared experiences and communal joy, transcending differences and fostering unity.

Department of English

Durga Puja embodies unity and cultural integration, showcasing diverse artistic talents, traditions, and rituals. The festivities foster cultural pride, dialogue, and harmony, reflecting a rich heritage.

On this occasion, The Department of English organizes the setting up of a wall magazine, screening of a short film made by the students, a photo exhibition & performances portraying the diverse social and cultural aspects of the festival.

Department of Food and Nutrition

Food in a festival is a cultural centerpiece – uniting people over shared meals, traditions, and flavors. It symbolizes abundance, gratitude, and the essence of togetherness, enhancing the festival experience and connecting individuals through a common table.

The Department of Food and Nutrition will set up food stalls with the flavours traditionally associated with the Durga Puja.

Alumni Association

with Department of Commerce & Department of Political Science

Gifts in a festival signify love, appreciation, and thoughtfulness – strengthening relationships and fostering a sense of connection and belonging. They serve as tokens of celebration and joy, and leaves lasting memories of togetherness.

Cossipore Tara Devi Harakh Chand Kankaria Jain College Old Students association will set up stalls of handicrafts, gifts and other miscellaneous items. Collect your souvenir from here, let your Shared Festival be special.
